

They say that if the domestic were abandoned he would in a generation or two revert to the wolf. Is it so hard to believe? Some creatures calling themselves men turn into wolves overnight, looting the dead and robbing the poor and helpless when disaster breaks the discipline of civilization.

A state policeman is shocked to discover, on shaking down a country boy leaving the tornado scene in a hurry, that he's loaded down with $1,700 in U. S. Savings Bonds.

The proprietor of a wrecked store reports his cash-register has been stripped while he's helping with the dead and injured.

A woman hovers in the ruins of her home unwilling to leave her few possessions despite the rain and cold because spotters are prowling through the night to see what they can find.

This is humanity's ugly side — a terrible reminder that we are no more than three-fourths civilized, and the evil quarter in us shows promptly when law and order falter.

That's why police are sent to a disaster area even ahead of the ambulances.

That's why, in disasters so great that the military have to be called out, the first order of the day is, "Shoot all looters on sight." It's just as true today as in the ancient times we erroneously call "uncivilized."

This is humanity's ugly side. But it should remind us that the majority of people are honest, charitable, God-fearing citizens — and we owe them something, when prostrated by disaster, in order to help civilization keep its guard up.

The dollars that we give in this emergency are not charity. They are thanksgiving for our own escape. They reaffirm our faith in this civilization and life — they push back the night of despair that has enveloped our fellow citizens and caused them to be overrun by wolves who look like men.

This is a grim story but a true one. If you're moved to help, do so today.

Send your donation to:

TORNADO RELIEF FUND

Money or checks will be received at:

First National Bank, Citizens National Bank, Radio Station KXAR, or Hope Star.

All donations of $1 or more will be published by The Star; lesser amounts will be classified as Miscellaneous, or credited to the name of the collecting community or organization.

Peace Talks Shrouded by Secrecy

Munsan, Korea, March 25 (AP) — Korean truce negotiators drew a curtain of secrecy today across their talks on exchanging prisoners of war.

"The negotiations are being conducted in secrecy or privacy, but the results if any will be published," said Brig. Gen. William P. Nichols, U. N. Command spokesman.

The news blackout was established in an effort to break one of three deadlocks preventing agreement on an armistice. The theory is: Negotiators will talk more readily about possible compromises if they are out of propaganda limelight.

Their problem is how to exchange prisoners. The U. N. wants prisoners of war to decide for themselves whether they will be sent home. The Reds want all Pows repatriated, whether they like it or not.

Barn, Stock Burn at Home of DeAnn Farmer

A report comes from Jessie Samuel of DeAnn the lightning struck his barn during the tornado period last Friday and it burned to the ground along with two mules, a cow, corn and hay and many farm implements.

The old pine log barn was built about 55 years ago by R. P. Samuel who with the help of his eight sons cut the logs and built it by hand.

What you can do:::

You can help reduce motor vehicle accidents by driving as if your life depends on it.

... by supporting organized safety movements in this community ... by teaching your youngsters to drive safely. That's what you can do for safety's sake.

Published as a public service in cooperation with the

Murry Refuses to Meet Wilson in Steel Talks

Washington, March 25 (AP) — CIO President Philip Murray today blasted Defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson as a "biased and uninformed" big businessman and refused to meet with him on the crucial steel dispute.

Wilson, flying back from talks with President Truman at Key West, Fla., had charted new steel wage-price peace negotiations in apparent hopes of avoiding boosts which he plainly felt might wreck the entire economic controls program.

Murray's tart refusal to meet with Wilson, even before the mobilization chief got around to sending out invitations, seemed to doom any such negotiations before they started.

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The board recommended a 17 1/2 cent hourly increase and other benefits.

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The board recommended a 17 1/2 cent hourly increase and other benefits.

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The board recommended a 17 1/2 cent hourly increase and other benefits.

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The board recommended a 17 1/2 cent hourly increase and other benefits.

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The board recommended a 17 1/2 cent hourly increase and other benefits.

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The board recommended a 17 1/2 cent hourly increase and other benefits.

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The board recommended a 17 1/2 cent hourly increase and other benefits.

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The board recommended a 17 1/2 cent hourly increase and other benefits.

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The board recommended a 17 1/2 cent hourly increase and other benefits.

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The board recommended a 17 1/2 cent hourly increase and other benefits.

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The board recommended a 17 1/2 cent hourly increase and other benefits.

Four Injured in Auto Collision, West on 67

Four persons were injured in a two-car accident late yesterday. Both vehicles were badly damaged. Nobody was believed in a serious condition.

A 1951 Oldsmobile driven by Morton R. Shadrinsky of Brooklyn, N. Y., smashed into a 1939 Plymouth driven by Roy Davis, negro resident of Sheppard, when the latter traveling west, made a left hand turn. The Brooklyn car was coming east.

Harry Finfer of Philadelphia, riding with Shadrinsky, and Jimmy Lee Davis, riding with Roy Davis, also escaped with cuts and bruises. The negroes were taken to Josephine Hospital for treatment and occupants of the other car were treated at Branch Hospital.

Both vehicles were badly damaged. Investigating were Sheriff Claude Sutton and state troopers Hughes and Downing.

Army to Use Airport at Newark

New York, March 25 (AP) — Newark Airport, closed as a safety precaution since three planes crashed nearby with a loss of 119 lives, will be re-opened for military planes on a limited basis.

This was announced today by the Port of New York Authority which controls airports in the metropolitan area.

The date of the re-opening was not set. The Authority said that would be decided by the United States Air Force.

The Air Force, in requesting the re-opening for national defense operations, said it wanted to use the field for shipping airplanes to Europe under the Mutual Security Agency program.

The field was closed Feb. 11 after three commercial passenger planes crashed within a two-month period into neighboring Elizabeth, N. J., while approaching or taking off from the airport.

Finnegan Free on Bail, Gets Two Years

St. Louis, March 25 (AP) — James P. Finnegan, former internal revenue collector, is free under a $5,000 appeal bond today after receiving a two-year prison sentence and a $10,000 fine for misconduct in office.

Attorneys of Finnegan, a personal friend of President Truman, said the appeal will be filed within 10 days.

U. S. District Judge Ruben M. Hulen, in passing sentence yesterday, described the 31-year-old Finnegan as a public official who sacrificed his honor for "a dirty mess of dollars."

Finnegan declined to comment on the sentence.

Small Damage as Two Cars Collide

At Third and Pine Streets this morning automobiles driven by Billy Schmidt of Hope R. 2 and Mont Wardlaw of McCaskill, collided. Only fender and grill damage resulted, investigating officers said.

Hempstead Asked to Increase Cucumber Acreage as Means of Increasing Farm Revenue

Cucumber pickle acreage was the subject of a meeting yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce of Hope with Ed Thrash, agriculture committee chairman, in charge.

Committee members present were Cecil Bittle, W. M. Sparks, Fred Luck, John Keck, Oliver L. Adams, Cecil Guthrie, Dorsey McRae and H. O. Kyler along with E. D. Coleman and Jack Johnson of the Brown-Miller Pickle Co., of Texarkana.

With the pickle company contributing time and money, the local U of A Experiment Station has been experimenting with cucumbers for the past four years, Mr. Bittle, director in charge of the station, told the group.

The Texarkana men said the 1952 acreage in Hempstead is about 700 but that even this year the company would contract for additional acreage and would like to see the county go to 1,500 acres by next year.

Cucumber pickles bring $200 per acre, an average, and income from this alone could be easily a half million mark in 1952, Mr. Coleman said. Mr. Johnson said that a family to try to produce on a large scale.

If anyone in the county is interested in growing cucumber they are invited to contact Jack Johnson, Brown-Miller field man at Spring Hill, the company at Texarkana or the Hope Chamber of Commerce. The group agreed this type operation could be profitable to the 1,444 small farms in the county.

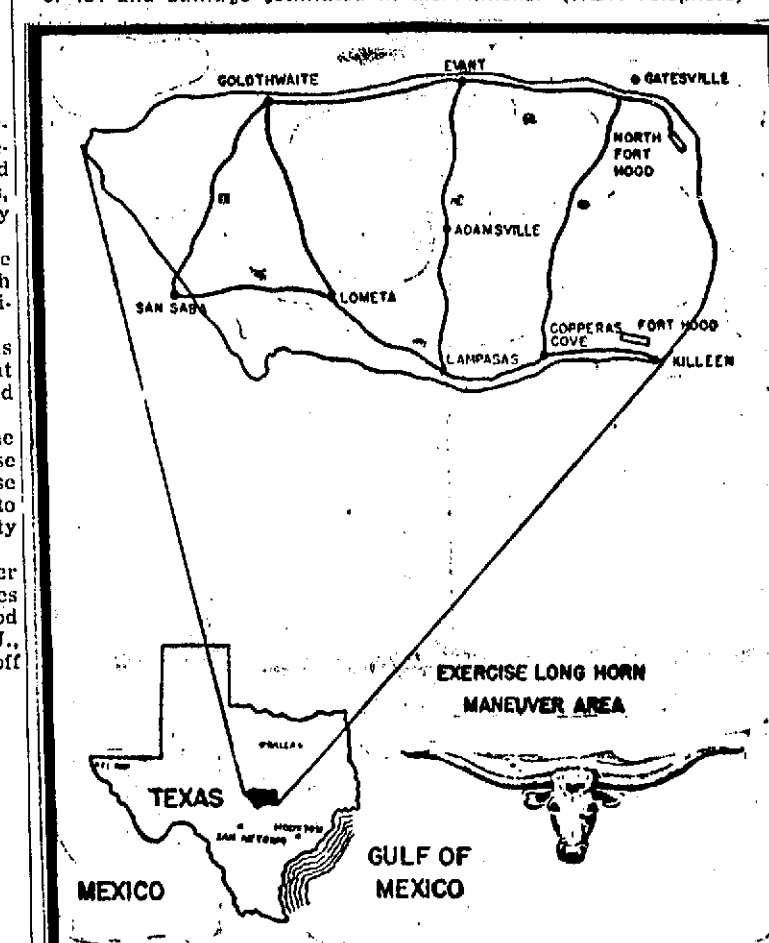

H. O. Kyler, Union Compress manager, said the capacity of the local compress is about 65,000 bales of cotton per year but that only 12,000 bales is handled at the present time. Ways and means of encouraging the shipping of cotton into Hope from neighboring counties was discussed with emphasis on an increased yield per acre on cotton now being planted.

Object of the Artificial Breeding Association is 750 breeding cows in Hempstead by April 15, according to Agent Oliver Adams. If this minimum can be reached the program will be available in the county by May 15.

The committee was very pleased with the results of the meeting.

STARTING ANEW — Heavy equipment rumbles through main street of Judasnia, Ark., as the city begins to dig itself out of the rubble and wreckage from tornado which almost destroyed it. Judasnia was hardest hit by storms which began last Friday, leaving 3,000 homeless, causing the death of 134 and damage estimated in the millions. (NEA Telephoto)

BIGGEST IN HISTORY — Area in which a 17-day "war" will be fought ending in the capture of the city of Lampasas by an invading force. U. S. Army and Air Force commanders ordered 115,000 men into "Exercise Longhorn," the biggest military practice maneuver in the history of America.

Strategists hope to solve some of the problems of rapid troop movements to meet surprise attacks and test tactics in the use of atomic weapons in ground fighting. (NEA Telephoto)

Legion Plans a Feed, Business Meet Thursday

A regular meeting of the American Legion will be held at Airport Thursday, March 27 at 7:15 p.m. with Haskell Jones as principal speaker.

During the business session "Go-Getter" awards will be made along with committee reports and selection of a representative to Boys' State.

The menu calls for serving of Baked ham with all the trimmings.

Reds Claim Capture of U. S. Spies

Hong Kong March 25 (UP) — The Chinese Communist Peiping radio claimed today the Reds in North Korea have captured a group of American spies who parachuted behind the lines to investigate the effectiveness of alleged American germ warfare.

The broadcast said the spies were disguised as North Korean and Chinese soldiers and were armed with guns, radios, cameras and medicines.

They were said to have parachuted into North Korea after receiving one month's special training from the U. S. 8th Army.

The broadcast further charged that the mission of the spies was similar to that of an International Red Cross investigation proposed by U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Bible Film to Be Shown Sunday

J. F. Loockie, Texarkana, American Bible Society representative will show a sound film at Hope City Hall Sunday, March 30, starting at 7 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Special Service at St. Mark's Church

The Rev. Thomas Carson, pastor

New Attack on Pink Bollworm Is Planned

Washington, March 25 (AP) — The Agriculture Department is getting ready for a new attack on the pink bollworm, costly pest in the cotton region.

Avery S. Hoyt, chief of the Bureau of Entomology and plant quarantine in the department, has written Rep. Gathings (D-Ark.) that his agency is reshuffling some of its other work in order to make additional funds available for research on ways to eradicate the pest.

Gathings, advised by cotton farmers in his area that the pink bollworm seems to be making headway, asked Hoyt about the control program.

In recent years, Hoyt said, weather has been favorable to spread of the insect and unfavorable for application of control remedies.

As a result, he said, there has been an alarming spread of pink bollworm northward across Texas "until the infestation now has reached the southern part of the state of Oklahoma and is closer than ever before to the boundaries of Arkansas."

Hoyt said fairly effective control measures have been found but that they don't work unless the weather is right and in recent years weather hasn't been favorable.

McMath Heads County Cancer Crusade

Syd McMath today was appointed Hempstead County campaign chairman of the 1952 Cancer Crusade which opens here on April 1, 1952.

The drive will seek $1,000.00 as part of the national Cancer Crusade which hopes to raise $18,000,000 for programs of research, services to patients and public and professional education.

Mr. McMath said that his first step would be to obtain chairman for five important committees dealing with organized groups, trades and industries, special gifts, individual canvass and information.

The slogan of the Crusade, he said, will be "Cancer Strikes One in Five, Strike Back, Give to Conquer Cancer."

"A strenuous effort will be made during the Crusade to reach every family with our educational messages," he stated. "Knowledge of the symptoms of cancer is a highly important weapon in fighting the disease since improved cure rates depend on people going to their doctor when early detection is possible. Ignorance of the danger signals of cancer usually delay diagnosis until the disease has reached and advanced—an incurable stage."

Mr. McMath lives at 321 North Elm Street. His Crusade office will be at First National Bank.

District Governor Visits Local Lions

Members of the local Lions Club heard a talk by Harvey Leggett, Little Rock, district governor, at the organization's regular noon luncheon at Hotel Barlow yesterday.

L. B. Tooley talked over a plan for a local storm warning system in this section. Other guests were Dean Strand, Bryan Strickland, and

The Safety Sippers Club Is Result of a Class Reunion With a Woman's Touch

By HAL BOYLE
New York, March 25 (AP) — It was the evening of Wilbur Poe's annual reunion with his old college chums, a stag affair.

"I hope you won't be lonely," he said guiltily to his wife, Trellis Mae. "I may be a little late getting home."

His wife looked at him in cold silence and held out a small bundle.

"What's this?" said Wilbur, surprised.

"It's your new drinking costume," replied Trellis Mae. "I made it for you myself, dear."

"What in the world do I need with a drinking costume?" demanded her husband.

"I got the idea from a newspaper article," pursued Trellis Mae. "It told about a millionaire sportsman who took his drinking so seriously that he dressed for it like a Viking — in a horned helmet and a suit of chain mail."

"Oh, yeah, I remember," said Wilbur. "The motto of the Viking society was, 'A Viking can always drink one more.' But — his voice grew indignant — 'what has that got to do with me?'"

"Well, everything you come home from one of your college reunions you have a black eye, your clothes are mussed or torn, or your shoes are scuffed," said Trellis Mae. "So I invented a safety drinking uniform for you."

Her husband, mutely, unwrapped the package. Out came his high school football helmet, a suit of green coveralls, some heavy winter overalls, and a pair of heavy leather gloves. Across the front of the helmet was attached a sign: "I'm not going to take any more drinks."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

"That's the idea," said Trellis Mae. "Now you can go to the reunion and drink as much as you want, and no one will be the wiser."

"I'm not going to take any more drinks," Wilbur repeated.

Kefauver Is Favored in Wisconsin

By JACK BELL

WISCONSIN, March 25 (AP) — Sen. Joseph R. Kefauver of Tennessee today was the favorite to be elected to the position of being United States senator in a primary and a general election in Wisconsin.

Following across this state in an effort to be Democratic presidential electors, Kefauver was the favorite to be elected to the position of being United States senator in a primary and a general election in Wisconsin.

At the same time, he conceded that he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state. He said he was not a "big shot" in his own state.

Truman decision to intervene militarily in Korea.

Taft said it was "perfect poppycock" to say, as Stevenson did, that intervention in Korea sparked the rapid buildup of defense in Europe. He said that in Korea the Communist forces in effect have "shot the policeman and got away with it."

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

Stevenson, at Dodgeville, fired an attack on former Wisconsin Gov. Phil La Follette, one of Warren's delegate candidates, asserting that La Follette was attempting to use the presidential contest to ride back into political power in the state.

PENITENTIAL PROCESSION—Shrouded, and wearing hoods marked with death's heads, their costume symbolizing man's ultimate destiny on earth, Roman noblemen are seen as they marched to Rome's St. Alessio Church during Ash Wednesday observances, marking the beginning of the penitential season of Lent.

Politics May Have Entered Special Meet

Little Rock, March 25 (AP) — There was speculation today that politics might be entering the picture of a proposed special session of the Arkansas Legislature to make a tornado relief appropriation.

Gov. McMath still hasn't said what he will do about the proposal. But an administration source said this morning that the first five telegrams received by the governor's office making that an extraordinary session be called came from known foes of the administration.

State Sen. Ellis Fagan of Little Rock, who urged the legislators to petition McMath for a special session, in an open opponent of the governor.

Some statehouse sources expressed belief that before reaching a decision on a legislative session, the governor will wait to see (1) exactly how much money is needed for relief of tornado victims and (2) how much money can be obtained from the federal government.

To a person standing at the water's edge and looking out over the ocean, the horizon is 3 miles distant — assuming the viewer's eyes are 5 feet high.

Hills, Calif., yesterday, and suggested an April 16 or 17 date.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

PENITENTIAL PROCESSION—Shrouded, and wearing hoods marked with death's heads, their costume symbolizing man's ultimate destiny on earth, Roman noblemen are seen as they marched to Rome's St. Alessio Church during Ash Wednesday observances, marking the beginning of the penitential season of Lent.

Little Rock, March 25 (AP) — There was speculation today that politics might be entering the picture of a proposed special session of the Arkansas Legislature to make a tornado relief appropriation.

Gov. McMath still hasn't said what he will do about the proposal. But an administration source said this morning that the first five telegrams received by the governor's office making that an extraordinary session be called came from known foes of the administration.

State Sen. Ellis Fagan of Little Rock, who urged the legislators to petition McMath for a special session, in an open opponent of the governor.

Some statehouse sources expressed belief that before reaching a decision on a legislative session, the governor will wait to see (1) exactly how much money is needed for relief of tornado victims and (2) how much money can be obtained from the federal government.

To a person standing at the water's edge and looking out over the ocean, the horizon is 3 miles distant — assuming the viewer's eyes are 5 feet high.

Hills, Calif., yesterday, and suggested an April 16 or 17 date.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Honory Woods, the governor's executive secretary, delayed definite acceptance pending McMath's return to Little Rock. The governor was inspecting storm damage in Howard county.

Six Perish in California Hotel Blaze

Los Angeles, March 25 (AP) — Fire which flashed swiftly in a 6-floor Skid Row hotel killed at least six men today.

A night clerk who ran through the corridors knocking on doors, then hurried back to his switchboard to warn others by telephone, was credited with saving many lives.

An estimated 150 were in the St. George Hotel, at 115 East Third St., when the blaze broke out at 3 a. m. (CST). Police said 10 were hospitalized with burns or injuries.

The night clerk, Leland Whitehouse, 57, said:

"The first I knew of the fire was when someone called down from the fourth floor when he saw smoke. I ran upstairs. I went down a back staircase from the fourth to the third floor. Then I saw the fire. It was coming from room 312 at the rear. The door was open."

One of the occupants of 312, identified by police as A. D. Bernhardt, fell or jumped to his death in an alley. The other occupant, Emil Mongee, was in a hospital with critical burns. Until they could question him, fire department arson investigators said they had no idea how the blaze started.

Whitehouse said the two men checked in after midnight.

The hotel is just off Main street, has a permanent population of about 80, and caters chiefly to men transients.

Of the dead, beside Bernhardt, all unlocated.

Two were identified tentatively as J. R. Moore and Charles Ellis Black, addresses undetermined.

Police and hotel officials lined up survivors in the lobby, making a room check. Many appeared dazed.

Policeman W. E. Meyer said he ran up a stairway from the lobby to the second floor and found a child lying at the head of the stairs. Afterward, he couldn't remember whether it was a boy or a girl. After getting oxygen, the child was sped off to a hospital.

The elevator operator, Little Chief White Eagle, 71, a Yaqui Indian, and his wife, a Cherokee, was asleep in their sixth floor room.

"I tore the screen off the window," said Mrs. White Eagle, 51, "and we jumped three feet to a fire escape."

The whine of sirens mingled with the screams of burned and calls for help as firemen and ambulances rolled up at the first alarm Division Chief H. M. Melvin put in a quick call for aerial ladders.

Trucks as frightened faces appeared at upper windows of the 100-room brick structure.

One by one the big ladders swung to windows to take off the occupants. Others clambered down fire escapes and a few jumped into nets. Most of them were suffering from the intense heat and heavy smoke.

The blaze was the third major fire of the night. A few hours earlier, a $400,000 blaze swept a two-story business building a few blocks away, on Broadway, gutting a clothing store, dress shop, jewelry store and restaurant.

One wing of the Bel Air Country Club was burned out in another fire shortly after midnight. President Frank Whittle estimated the loss, chiefly to the kitchen and banquet room, at $200,000. Six employees escaped.

Chickenpox Keeps Batista Idle

Havana, March 25 (AP) — Chickenpox has prevented Gen. Fulgencio Batista's personal participation in official acts for the past four days, his secretary announced last night.

The dictator's absence from official functions had given rise to rumors he was a prisoner of the military forces who returned him to power in a sudden coup two weeks ago.

The announcement of his illness appeared calculated to quiet these reports.

Batista on Saturday was reported ill with the gripe at Camp Columbia, Cuba's chief army garrison where he has lived since, his army-backed ouster of President Carlos Prío Socarrás.

The Wars of the Roses in England during the 15th Century were conducted with a ferocity and brutality practically unknown in English history before or since.

Get Gay, Attractive CARNIVAL WARE IN MOTHER'S OATS

4 Festive Colors for Mixing and Matching! What a thrill to collect the valuable, useful premiums that come inside every big square package of Mother's Oats! Start today! No waiting—no coupons—no money to send for this gaily colored Carnival Ware, or Aluminum Ware, "Fire-King" Cup and Saucer, or "Wild Rose" pattern China.

And remember, there's finer quality, more delicious, more nourishing oatmeal for your family than Mother's Oats! Get it today!

MOTHER'S OATS—a product of THE QUAKER OATS COMPANY

Be Sure to Attend "FUN and FORTUNE" Saenger Theatre 7:30 P. M. TONIGHT

The Big Treasure Chest Now Contains . . .

- A 34 Piece set of silverware by the National Silver Company.
- A 9 Piece Stainless Steel Cutlery Set by Iroquois.
- A Double Electric Table Grill by Royal.
- An Avalon Electric Clock — Novel design looks like a bird cage.
- Miracle Maid Carpet Sweeper.
- and a China Blue Tricolorator.

You can win hundreds of dollars in merchandise in the Treasure Chest by participating in "Fun and Fortune."

BROADCAST TIME 8:30 P. M.

KXAR

WE DON'T KNOW WHO OUR NEXT PRESIDENT IS GOING TO BE BUT — — —

We do know that you are sure missing the Opportunity of a Lifetime if you don't get to the Most Gigantic Quitting Business Sale ever witnessed for miles around.

Geo. W. Robison & Co. 119 W. 2nd Hope, Ark. 20 Days to Go

20 DAYS LEFT TO GO

Geo. W. Robison & Co. 119 W. 2nd Hope, Ark. 20 Days to Go

Don't just sit around trying to figure out how to make money and save it. If you really want to make money and save money get here and you will save . . . 50c on the Dollar.

Yes sir . . . spend a Dollar and Save a Dollar. No kidding folks. ST. LOUIS BROKERAGE is giving terrific values unheard of, and we still have a tremendous stock of Ladies, Girls, Children's Ready-to-Wear. Men's and Boys' Clothing and Ready-to-Wear, a Complete Stock of Shoes for the Entire family, also loads and loads of Piece Goods, and Tables Full of Notions, Patterns, Thread, Dyes at HALF PRICE.

So this is it . . . the End . . . the Finish . . . the Wind Up. Everything goes, this is a complete wall to wall sell out. So get here, all you need is a lot of time and a little bit of money. A big bushel basket and a little bit of money. The address is — — —

GEO. W. ROBISON

DEPARTMENT STORE

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair of these eye-catching, face-setting, "grown-up styled" Poll-Parrots.

For these bright new styles feature the same smart themes that are used in Mom and Dad's new shoes.

Keep your youngsters a step ahead in the summer shoe parade . . . bring them in to see our selection of new Poll-Parrots . . . soon!

What child wouldn't smile . . . with a pair

SOCIETY

Phone 7-3431 Between S. A. M. and E. P. M.

Calendar

Tuesday, March 25
There will be a joint meeting of the Hope Business and Professional Women's Club at the Lawson Hotel, Tuesday, March 25, at 7:30. Members who can attend, call 7-3461 by Saturday for transportation.

The Cosmopolitan Club will meet Tuesday, March 25, at 7:45 at the home of Mrs. Henry Haynes with Mrs. S. A. Whitlow as co-hostess.

The PEO Organization will entertain the senior girls of Hope High School at a get-together Tuesday afternoon to present College.

The Nandina Garden Club will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 in the home of Mrs. Bernard Dunn.

The Jett B Graves Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church will have their monthly pot luck Tuesday, March 25, at 6:30. Dinner will be served at 7. All members are asked to bring their gift wrapped white elephant.

The Brookwood Brownie Troop No. 2 under the leadership of Mrs. H. O. Kyler, Jr. and Miss Kay Camp will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Anthony's garage apartment.

Wednesday March 26
The Lilac Garden Club will meet with Mrs. A. E. Slusser, 202 West Ave. C. Wednesday at 3 p.m. with Mrs. O. C. Sutton as co-hostess.

The Christian Men's Fellowship meeting of the First Christian Church has been postponed and will not meet until April.

Thursday, March 27
The Friday Music Club will meet Thursday night, March 27, at 7:30 in the home of Mrs. Garrett Story. Mrs. Jack Wilson will have charge of the program.

Mrs. Emmett Thompson and Mrs. Lyle Brown will be hostesses for the Country Club Ladies Covered Dish Luncheon Thursday at 12:30.

The Executive Board of American Cancer Society will meet at 7:30 Thursday night at the home of Mrs. E. O. Wingfield.

Howard - Middle Vows Exchanged

Miss Bettye Biddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Biddle of Roston, became the bride of Cpl. Paul W. Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Howard of Arkadelphia, in a double ring ceremony performed in the home of the Reverend Mac S. Gates, Saturday, March 22, at 8:30 p.m. in Melvern, Arkansas.

The bride was dressed in a navy blue gabled suit with pink and navy accessories. She pinned a corsage of pink carnations at her shoulder.

The couple's only attendants were Sgt. and Mrs. Terrell Mullins of Fort Hood, Texas.

Mrs. Howard will continue working in Dallas, Texas, until Cpl. Howard is discharged from the Army. He is stationed at Fort Hood, Texas.

O'Steen - Thornton Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Carl O'Steen of this city announce the engagement of their daughter, Orna Lee, to Carl Thornton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thornton also of this city. The wedding will take place in April.

Miss Orna Lee O'Steen Honored With Shower

Mrs. Royce Smith entertained with a bridal shower Wednesday night at her home on East Avenue C. honoring Miss Orna Lee O'Steen bride-elect of Carl Thornton.

Games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Lonnie Tullis and Mrs. Day.

Iced drinks and sandwiches were served to those present.

The honoree was the recipient of many useful gifts.

Mrs. Troy Greenlee Hostess to Dahlia Garden Club

The Dahlia Garden Club met Friday afternoon, March 21, with Mrs. Troy Greenlee on the Rosston Road. Mrs. Carl Greenlee was co-hostess.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Joe Reese. After the business meeting, Mrs. Dewey Baber gave a talk on soil. Mrs. C. C. Coleman's miniature arrangement won the most points.

The hostesses served a salad plate to fifteen members.

The April meeting will be with Mrs. Dewey Baber and Mrs. Harrison.

Circle 5 of WSCS Meets Monday

A program on the annual WSCS meeting was presented by Mrs. LaGrone Williams when Circle 5 met Monday afternoon, March 24.

Those giving highlights of the meeting were Mrs. Bobby Linaker, Mrs. Herschel Patterson, and Mrs. E. E. Carver. Mrs. Steven Bader brought the devotional using the song "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee" and the 21st chapter of Luke.

Mrs. Howard Byers, chairman of the visitation committee, reported on visits made to new members. Mrs. Claude Tillery, chairman, conducted the business session. It was voted to give $2.50 as a Lenten offering. Mrs. Tillery appointed the following nominating committee: Mrs. Syd McMath, chairman, Mrs. John Gardner, and Mrs. Virgil Keeley.

The circle packed a box of clothing to be sent to the tornado area. Mrs. Fred Johnson was welcomed into the club as a new member. The meeting closed with the benediction.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Willard Cassidy and Mrs. Herschel Patterson, to twenty-seven members.

Patmos PTA Elects Officers

Patmos PTA met on March 19 with fifty members present.

The devotional was read by Mrs. Noel Warren and W. H. Allison led in prayer. The group voted to donate $50 to the purchase of new library books.

New officers for the year are: President, Mrs. Lester Kent, vice-president, Mrs. Walter Ratliff, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Jimmie Griffin.

The meeting was then turned over to Curtis Garner. Elmer Brown, speaker of the evening, discussed the present school crisis.

Coming and Going

Mrs. Tony Fodaro of Shreveport left Sunday to join her husband who is attending school in New Orleans after a visit with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Rogers.

Hospital Notes

Branch
Admitted: Mr. Carl Brown, Blewins, Alberta Franks, Rt. 1, Hope, Mrs. Mollie Hucksbee, Roston.
Discharged: Mst. James Lynn Gilbert, Washington, Mrs. Ernest Hackler, Patmos, Mrs. O. A. Graves, Hope.

Julia Chisler
March 24
Admitted: Mrs. Molly Taylor, Prescott.

March 25
Admitted: Mrs. M. M. Cliffe, Prescott.

Storm Deals Blow to State School System

By The Associated Press
Arkansas' public school system was dealt a crippling blow by Friday's tornadoes.

In a telegram to President Truman yesterday, Gov. McMath placed the damage to 19 school buildings at 1.5 million dollars. Education Department officials conferred Monday in an attempt to work a method of temporary assistance to the schools.

At Judsonia, White County school Supervisor W. E. Orr said schools would be closed the remainder of the term. Students will receive credit for a 9-month term, having already completed eight months work. The Judsonia school opens early to permit closing in time for strawberry picking.

The only school buildings left standing at Judsonia are the agriculture building and gymnasium, which were damaged. Loss was placed at $441,000.

Bald Knob school officials also met Monday, but were unable to reach a definite decision on reopening schools. Although the Bald Knob school plant was wrecked, some buildings may be salvaged.

Officials are to meet again Wednesday to discuss holding high school classes in churches and allowing the grammar schools to remain closed for the remainder of the term. School damage was estimated at $585,700.

School Superintendent John T. Arnold said Kentsett schools may open on a temporary, emergency basis Wednesday. The school was damaged, but not destroyed and workers are repairing the gymnasium roof. Officials placed Kentsett school damage at $285,142.

Commissioner A. B. Bonds said yesterday Monday that from scattered reports and records, it appears that the district's insurance policies will not begin to cover the damage. Also, the districts will be unable to borrow any additional money through commercial bond issues until the March, 1953, school election.

Even though some districts have borrowing authority left, they may only borrow up to 15 per cent of their assessed valuation. In some cases, today's valuation would be centered on broken shells of buildings in a storm-ravaged lot.

Bonds said he hoped something could be worked out to permit the districts to incur temporary indebtedness.

Decision Again Delayed on School Issue

Little Rock, March 25 (AP) — The State Board of Education, for the second time, has delayed a decision on declaring a policy of equalizing Negro school facilities.

Only a bare quorum turned out last night for a 4-hour meeting. Here, they deferred a decision until another special meeting April 24.

The only two affirmative steps taken by the group were: 1. Authorization of Education Commissioner A. B. Bonds to ask the Legislative Council to study possible legislation to permit counties to establish Negro High School center on a county-wide basis.

2. Revised regulations concerning state aid to districts to require the districts to "adopt a salary schedule based on at least training and experience, with a minimum for a 9-month term equal to the per cent of salary allowance used to determine the minimum school budget of the district in 1952-53."

Byrnes to Talk at Delta Meet

Greenville, Miss., March 25 (AP) — South Carolina Gov. James Byrnes, a staunch States Righter, will be the principal speaker at the annual meeting of Delta Council in Cleveland, Miss., May 15.

Byrnes' acceptance was announced yesterday by Maury Knowlton of Perthshire, council president.

The council is an organization of business, professional and agricultural leaders of the delta area of Northwest Mississippi.

Pate, Hope, Miss Barbara Smith, Hope.
March 25
Admitted: Mrs. Glen D. Eley, McCaskill, Mrs. Horace Williams, Hope, R. A. Yarbrough, Fulton, Edward H. McCraw, Arlington, Va., Mrs. Paul Howard, Dallas, Texas.

Discharged: Charles C. Cook, Hope, Mrs. Marvin Watterson, of Hope, Mrs. L. M. Lille, Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Williams, Hope, announce the arrival of a son, 2-25-52.

Josephine
March 24
Admitted: T. F. Smith, Hope, Mr. J. M. Cliffe, Minden, La., Mrs. Zack Stone, Prescott.

Discharged: Mrs. R. H. Barr, Hope, Mrs. A. W. Stevens, and baby Ozap, Mrs. Waymond Taylor and baby, Hope, Mst. Ronnie Norvell, Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Zack Stone announce the arrival of a daughter on March 22.

March 25
Admitted: Baby Kathy Ann Jones, Prescott.

Discharged: Mrs. J. M. Cliffe, Prescott.

March 26
Admitted: Mrs. Molly Taylor, Prescott.

Discharged: Mrs. M. M. Cliffe, Prescott.

WARDROOM ART, SOVIET STYLE — Something new was added to U. S. icebreakers Westwind and Northwind just returned by Russia, which used the ships during World War II. The American crews who brought the ships to South Boston naval annex found Soviet posters aboard. Poster at left reads, "They (light) for peace." Second poster, with a picture of Joseph Stalin, bears his father's name, and below it, the name of a Baltic city. Posters are held by George Hubert, Worcester, Mass., left, and Attilio Valentino, Winchester, Mass.

DOROTHY DIX Quarreling Children

Dear Miss Dix: I am the mother of two children, a boy of 7 and a girl of 5. Individually, they are wonderful children. I can talk to them and really enjoy their company. Together, they are continual fighting and eager to tell on each other. Each is jealous of the slightest attention I pay to the other. I must remember to take turns kissing them good night, so one isn't kissed first two nights in a row. I love them both. My son is everything a mother could be proud of, honest, intelligent and good. My daughter is a beautiful child and very sweet. They're both friendly and have no trouble with other children. I am especially worried about the girl as she shows evidence of growing into a beautiful, intelligent woman and I want her to be well-adjusted, with a good personality. Right now she is getting selfish and grasping, more eager to be shown love than to show her affection.

I am married for the second time, and the children are of my first marriage, yet they loved each other after I married my second husband so I can't put the blame on this situation.

MRS. GLADYS W.
Answer: You may be convinced that your second marriage has nothing to do with the children's sudden maladjustment, yet that is undoubtedly where the trouble lies. They are jealous, not so much of each other, as of their stepfather, but are evincing their feelings in the only way they know — scrapping with each other. Your tactics of scrupulous impartiality are to them almost an admission of shortcoming, as they see it, providing a ready weapon for them to use in self-defense.

You show fine discernment in realizing the responsibility of launching a beautiful girl in the world. All the beauty and intelligence in the world will do her no good if she has a selfish, demanding disposition.

Stress Group Work
Since both children are socially minded, and are at their best in group work, emphasize that part of their development as much as possible. Dancing, dramatics, sports—anything that will encourage them to get along with other children—will be good for them. However, stay on the sidelines as much as possible during their activity. Don't let them get the idea that you encourage an extra-curricular pastime just to have them out of the way.

At home, let them share — not monopolize — your time and attention in the family. Don't neglect them for your husband, or vice versa. They have a place within the home and must learn to keep within it, not take over the entire house hold. Since they are both intelligent, you should be able to talk to them and give them a sense of responsibility too.

Your son should be aware of the fact that as the older brother he must look after his small sister. She must realize that her femininity entails obligations as well as privileges. She is growing out of babyhood, inform her, and must learn to be a gracious sister and daughter. Household duties on the glamorous side, such as fixing decorative dishes, arranging flowers, setting up for a party, are not beyond her age, and will give her a sense of importance to overbalance the inferiority she now feels.

It is only a feeling of inferiority that makes children demanding. The child who can give as well as take is the youngster who is sublimely secure.

Dear Miss Dix: What can we do about a middle-aged woman who visits all over the neighborhood during the day, and returns home at night?

Answer: These visiting pests are hard to discourage, but one method I have known to be successful is to continue your work, what ever it is, while she's around. Simply say "Pardon me, but I must go ahead and bathe the baby," or do my ironing, or scrub the floor, whatever the task at hand may be. If you want a really fool-proof system for discouraging her, casually hand her a job to do, to ask her to help you move the furniture someday or some other job necessitating an assistant. You'll soon be free of her intrusions.

Dear Miss Dix: Though, I've been going with a boy 21 for quite a while, we haven't gone steady.

MRS. G. L.
Answer: You were very wrong to keep such a valuable item as a moment. A lighter is an expensive item, and when a man is used to a particular one it is quite important to him. You'll have to do a lot of pride-swallowing, Norma, but you should call the boy up (or write to him), apologize, and send the lighter back. If he wants to resume your friendship after that, let the next move be from him. All you can do, after the lighter is taken care of, is wait!

NORMA L.
Answer: You were very wrong to keep such a valuable item as a moment. A lighter is an expensive item, and when a man is used to a particular one it is quite important to him. You'll have to do a lot of pride-swallowing, Norma, but you should call the boy up (or write to him), apologize, and send the lighter back. If he wants to resume your friendship after that, let the next move be from him. All you can do, after the lighter is taken care of, is wait!

White Only
Size 32 to 44

Miss Elaine PRECISIONAL SLIPS

STRAIGHT CUT EXCLUSIVE ACETATE NYLON CREPE SLIP $3.95

To Compliment Your Easter Outfit!

Slips which fit perfectly last longer. No sag under the arms... no pull across the hips... none of the bad features which cause wear and tear! The Miss Elaine Precisional slip is made of our own exclusive crepe which is so easy to care for! Makes your clothes fit better... look better! A money-back guarantee with every garment. No other slip offers so much at a price so low!

Lewis-McLarty

Hope's Finest Dressmaker

White County Looks to Crop Needs

By The Associated Press
White county, principally a farming county, began to shake the tinge of chaos Monday and look for its crops.

A preliminary survey shows the county's No. 2 money crop, strawberries — may have escaped major damage. But Acting County Agent Randal K. Price said it is too early to make an accurate evaluation.

No estimate has been made of the livestock and poultry loss. Price said the county's top cash crop, cotton, was not affected by the storm.

Price said he has received reports of damage to some of White county's 100,000-acre dairy herds. He said several "broader" herds were wrecked.

In Johnson county, the storm snap that followed Friday's tornadoes killed from 50 to 90 per cent of the peach crop. A report from the University of Arkansas Experiment Station at Clarksville, Ark., stated that only one type of peach escaped damage — the Falk Beauty species.

Foreign Policy Big Issue of Campaigns

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington March 25 (AP) — Before the presidential campaign is over both sides will have flooded the American people with a river of words on foreign policy.

The Republicans will represent the Truman policy as no policy at all or as a hasty patchwork to meet unexpected situations. The Democrats, of course, will defend it as thorough and thought-out.

When the campaign subsides it's doubtful the people, drenched in the claims and counterclaims, will have a much clearer picture of American foreign policy than they have now.

A historian, examining this period a hundred years from now, may decide that what passed for a policy was truly a patchwork or that it was a good policy, indeed, but not well understood by all the people.

If it's the latter, he may conclude the critics of the policy were far more active and effective in criticizing it than the Truman administration, including the State Department, was in defending and explaining it.

Perhaps it is only a coincidence that at this moment the State Department has produced an 80-page document, called "Our Foreign Policy, 1952," to explain and justify American actions abroad under the Truman administration.

It is not a brand new notion. The State Department says Truman himself first suggested such a document in 1949 and one similar to the 80-page just was published by the department in 1950.

There were 200,000 copies of the first one. The government printer will turn out 300,000 copies of the new one. For 25 cents they can be obtained from the Department of the Superintendent of Documents in Washington, D. C.

Groups and organizations interested in foreign affairs, and in keeping abreast of them, will buy some of these but since there are only 300,000 copies, most of the 150 million Americans will never see them.

The very fact that the President and Secretary of State, Acheson, thought it worth while, or perhaps necessary, to produce the explanation at all raises a question.

Why haven't the President and Acheson been far more active, particularly on the radio and TV, in explaining to the people the foreign policy of the administration?

Perhaps the fact that the President recently permitted a book about him — conversations and diaries and views on men and events — to be published is an admission he has not done enough to communicate with the people.

Acheson certainly has been urged by some of his advisers, who watched the critics belittle him and his work, to go to the people on TV and present a case for himself and the foreign policy.

Instead — and in spite of the fact that he won friends with his TV performance at the Japanese Peace Treaty signing in San Francisco — Acheson seems to have withdrawn into himself.

Maybe the endless criticism has had that effect on him, since he is a sensitive man. But even his news conferences have become dull.

Communists Lose Many Members

Washington, March 25 (AP) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover says membership in the U. S. Communist party has dropped off by one-fourth in the past year and the remaining 31,600 have begun going underground.

A year ago there were 43,217 Communists in this country, he told the House Appropriations Committee in testimony made public last night.

He attributed the decline to "public awareness of what communism is" and fear of prosecution as result of congressional investigations and trials and arrests of Reds.

He said Communists no longer issue membership cards and meet in secret. He said one-third of the 31,608 Communists have gone underground, about half of them in the New York area. He listed California, Illinois, Ohio, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Pennsylvania and Michigan as other centers of heavy Communist activity.

Great Britain acquired the Fiji Islands in 1874.

Czechs to Hike Military Spending

Vladimir Clementis, Czechoslovakia's night disclosed its new budget showing a slight increase in military spending and indicating that such outlays probably are increased under large figures for national industries.

The Prague Radio, although the budget after it was presented to Parliament, said it totaled 1.2 billion crowns (about $1.2 billion dollars), with 6.8 per cent of the money, equal to 428 million dollars, allotted for "internal and external security."

The military program included recently — a expanded military training, a larger army and a large-scale Civil Defense setup. The big increases in these projects, previously disclosed — seem less or than the increase in the military budget.

But industrial appropriations equalled $4,350,000,000 — more than two-thirds of the budget, the radio said.

Czechoslovak industry is closely geared to Soviet military needs, and one of the country's principal industries is arms-making. The radio announcement gave no clue to how much industrial spending was for army installations, armaments, weapons buying, manufacture of equipment and supplies and other military items.

White County Looks to Crop Needs

By The Associated Press
White county, principally a farming county, began to shake the tinge of chaos Monday and look for its crops.

A preliminary survey shows the county's No. 2 money crop, strawberries — may have escaped major damage. But Acting County Agent Randal K. Price said it is too early to make an accurate evaluation.

No estimate has been made of the livestock and poultry loss. Price said the county's top cash crop, cotton, was not affected by the storm.

Price said he has received reports of damage to some of White county's 100,000-acre dairy herds. He said several "broader" herds were wrecked.

In Johnson county, the storm snap that followed Friday's tornadoes killed from 50 to 90 per cent of the peach crop. A report from the University of Arkansas Experiment Station at Clarksville, Ark., stated that only one type of peach escaped damage — the Falk Beauty species.

Great Britain acquired the Fiji Islands in 1874.

White County Looks to Crop Needs

By The Associated Press
White county, principally a farming county, began to shake the tinge of chaos Monday and look for its crops.

A preliminary survey shows the county's No. 2 money crop, strawberries — may have escaped major damage. But Acting County Agent Randal K. Price said it is too early to make an accurate evaluation.

No estimate has been made of the livestock and poultry loss. Price said the county's top cash crop, cotton, was not affected by the storm.

Price said he has received reports of damage to some of White county's 100,000-acre dairy herds. He said several "broader" herds were wrecked.

In Johnson county, the storm snap that followed Friday's tornadoes killed from 50 to 90 per cent of the peach crop. A report from the University of Arkansas Experiment Station at Clarksville, Ark., stated that only one type of peach escaped damage — the Falk Beauty species.

Great Britain acquired the Fiji Islands in 1874.

White County Looks to Crop Needs

By The Associated Press
White county, principally a farming county, began to shake the tinge of chaos Monday and look for its crops.

A preliminary survey shows the county's No. 2 money crop, strawberries — may have escaped major damage. But Acting County Agent Randal K. Price said it is too early to make an accurate evaluation.

No estimate has been made of the livestock and poultry loss. Price said the county's top cash crop, cotton, was not affected by the storm.

Price said he has received reports of damage to some of White county's 100,000-acre dairy herds. He said several "broader" herds were wrecked.

In Johnson county, the storm snap that followed Friday's tornadoes killed from 50 to 90 per cent of the peach crop. A report from the University of Arkansas Experiment Station at Clarksville, Ark., stated that only one type of peach escaped damage — the Falk Beauty species.

Great Britain acquired the Fiji Islands in 1874.

White County Looks to Crop Needs

By The Associated Press
White county, principally a farming county, began to shake the tinge of chaos Monday and look for its crops.

A preliminary survey shows the county's No. 2 money crop, strawberries — may have escaped major damage. But Acting County Agent Randal K. Price said it is too early to make an accurate evaluation.

No estimate has been made of the livestock and poultry loss. Price said the county's top cash crop, cotton, was not affected by the storm.

Price said he has received reports of damage to some of White county's 100,000-acre dairy herds. He said several "broader" herds were wrecked.

In Johnson county, the storm snap that followed Friday's tornadoes killed from 50 to 90 per cent of the peach crop. A report from the University of Arkansas Experiment Station at Clarksville, Ark., stated that only one type of peach escaped damage — the Falk Beauty species.

Great Britain acquired the Fiji Islands in 1874.

White County Looks to Crop Needs

By The Associated Press
White county, principally a farming county, began to shake the tinge of chaos Monday and look for its crops.

A preliminary survey shows the county's No. 2 money crop, strawberries — may

BLONDIE

HOPE STAR, HOPE, ARKANSAS

By Chick Young

OZARK IKE

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams

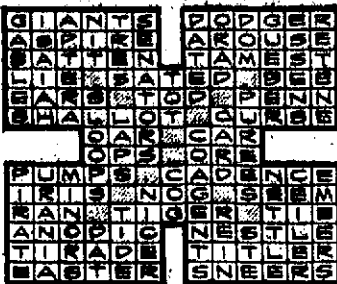

VIC FLINT

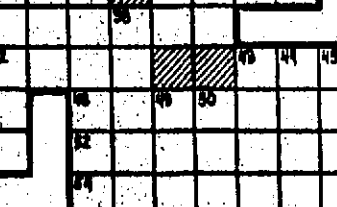

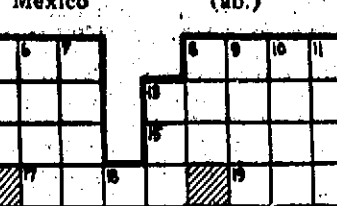

Screen Star

- HORIZONTAL
- 1 Screen star
 - 2 Interstices
 - 3 He abducted
 - 4 Helen of Troy
 - 5 Hopefulness
 - 6 Princes
 - 7 Dine
 - 8 Insect eggs
 - 9 English river
 - 10 Arid spots
 - 11 Small bird
 - 12 Mariners
 - 13 Responds to treatment
 - 14 Uranus
 - 15 Talmud commentary
 - 16 Small bristle
 - 17 Unwrought inkle (pl.)
 - 18 Promontory
 - 19 Tatter
 - 20 Lubricants
 - 21 Instrumental duets
 - 22 So long (Fr.)
 - 23 She is a screen and radio
 - 24 Units of length
 - 25 Epicure
 - 26 She is a
 - 27 Beasts of burden
- VERTICAL
- 1 Ordered
 - 2 Scope
 - 3 Pause
 - 4 Hit (slang)
 - 5 Winglike part
 - 6 Showers
 - 7 Eagles' nests
 - 8 Actor

Answer to Previous Puzzle

- GIANTS
- 10 Italian coins
 - 11 Essential being
 - 12 Noxious
 - 13 Snare
 - 14 Decanal
 - 15 In confidence
 - 16 Laminated
 - 17 rocks
 - 18 Cry
 - 19 Branches
 - 20 Burden
 - 21 Units of reluctance
 - 22 Station (ab.)
 - 23 Royal
 - 24 Geographic Society (ab.)

CARNIVAL

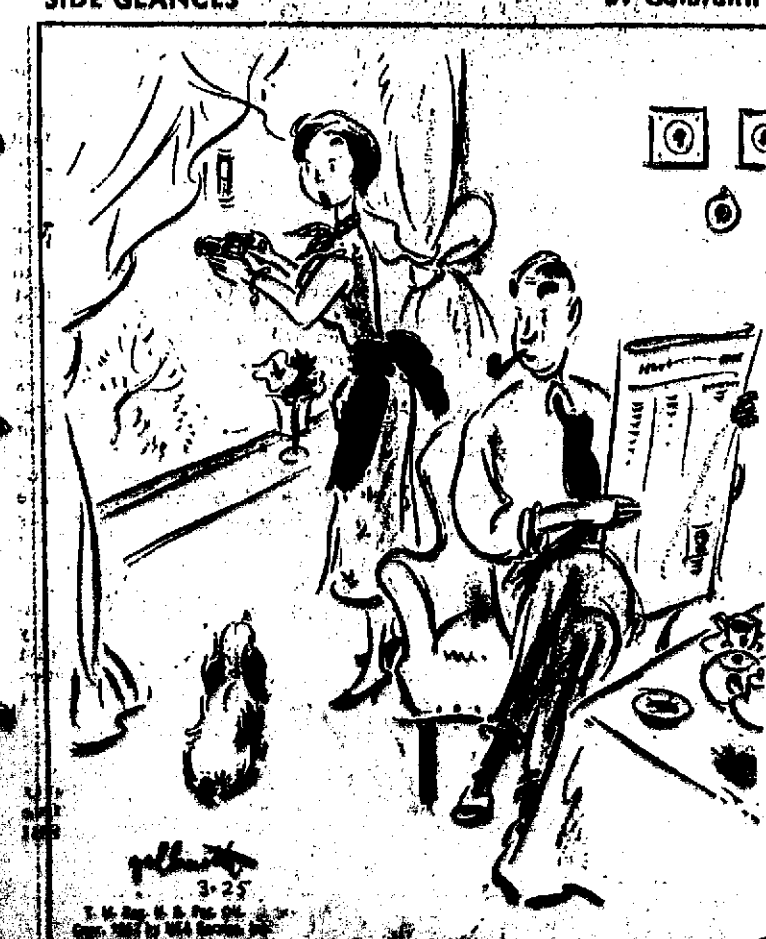

By Dick Turner

"I think it's letting up now—I see a taxi!"

SIDE GLANCES

By Gelbraith

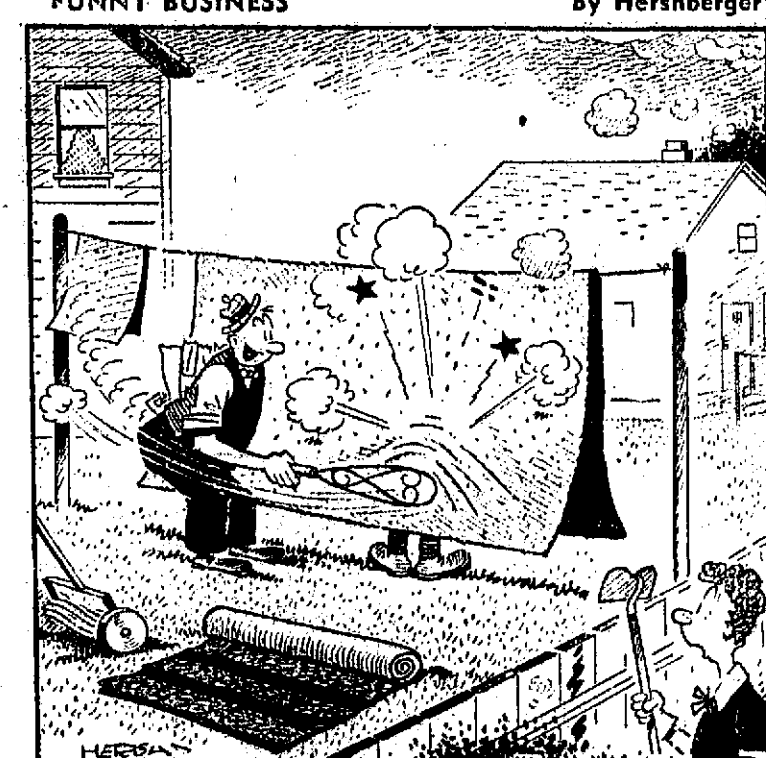

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

With Major Hoople

FUNNY BUSINESS

By Hershberger

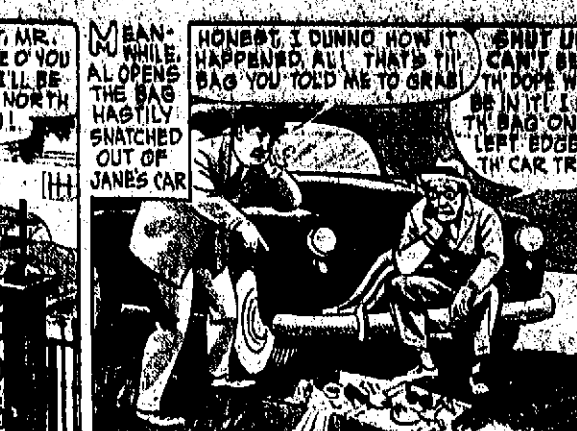

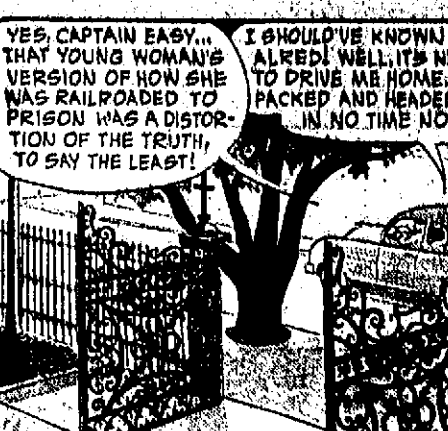

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

By Blosser

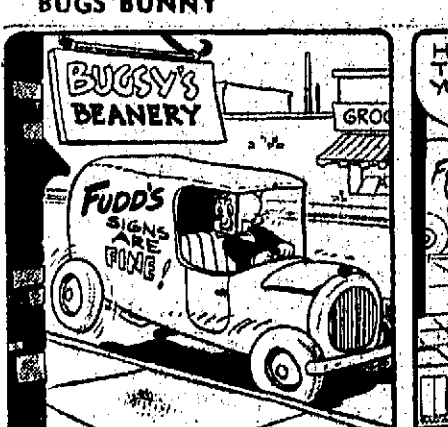

WASH TUBBS

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

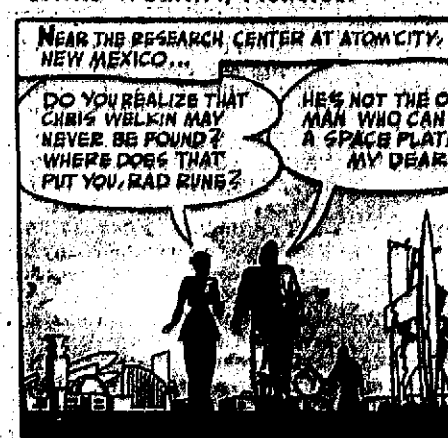

BUGS BUNNY

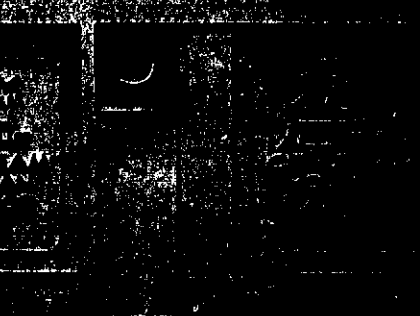

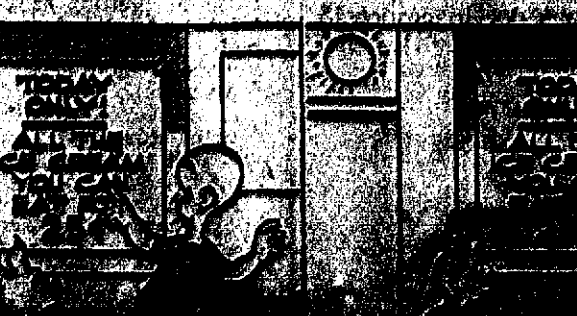

ALLEY OOP

CHRIS WELKIN, Pioneer

HENRY

First Shipment of Chicks to New Hatchery Here

Edward Say e Faith

Okla. March 24 (UP) — A devastated area of the state...

...because Americans... and sympathy... and "beware... who would try to exploit... programs."

...was hit by a tornado... 1947. The twister killed 97... destroyed a wide... including most of... buildings and city...

...citizens of the rebuilt... church to pray for... and homeless... of the... asked for divine guid-... huge rehabilitation job... Southern area.

...D. McCracken, a Baptist... and Herman J. Selz... County Red Cross chair-... the warning.

...many chicks here," Sale... found — too late — that... many (workers) com-... contracting jobs with... at "high prices for a... of work."

...red tornado victims to... through "recognized... agencies such as the... Army and the Ameri-... Cross."

...all," McCracken said... were going into stricken... be searched and dou-... for an honest and true... help."

...check, McCracken said... residents "further finan-... the hands of shysters... themselves off as part... of legitimate rehabilita-... tions."

...Brandon Post added the... how the wonderful feeling... hour of sorrow and... suddenly appear those... and exemplify in a... charity that you almost...

...ward the homeless were... from rain and snow which... the tornado by Salvation... who brought blankets... and food. The Red Cross... for relief work, and an-... 500,000 came as the result... paper and radio drives on... the community.

...ks 'Folly'... So Foolish

Okla. March 24 (UP) —... residents of this... may well owe their... to Mrs. Dratt...

...the family moved here... years ago, Mrs. Pauline... her husband add a storm... to the new house he... building. He did so re-... and neighbors who... the cellar unless... the butt of their...

...tornado's roaring funnel... midday Friday night... of the living neighbors... into the Pauline "nas-... tality."

...water demolished the... like home and several... like home and several...

...like the sun, are be-... maintain their heat by... of hydrogen into helium... process that may some-... in a hydrogen bomb...

—Photo Shipley Studio

A little more than a week ago Corn Belt Hatcheries of Arkansas started production here but even before thousands of chicks were being delivered to growers all over this section.

Pictured above is the first batch of chickens delivered to Hope from Illinois by plane for distribution.

Left to right are John Randolph and Mrs. Freda Greenan, general manager and president of Corn Belt Hatcheries; Henry Cavitt, manager of the Arkansas branch; Co-pilot George Johnson and Pilot Paul Duncan, Bill Laha and Doyle Atkins, employees.

Chinook Reds and North Koreans cold and then started rolling them back.

President Truman's recall of Gen. MacArthur in April, 1951, projected Ridgway from the battlefront to Tokyo as MacArthur's successor. Ridgway packs 180 pounds on a wiry, well-built frame of 5 feet, 11 1/2 inches. He keeps in shape by swimming, calisthenics and badminton.

At his five-room apartment in the U. S. Embassy in Tokyo he likes to relax — when the job permits — with his attractive, dark-haired wife, Penny, and their son Matthew Jr., who will be 3 next month.

Ridgway recently was asked if he would like to take over Eisenhower's job if he leaves the European post. Ridgway smiled: "A foolish question. I'll go where I'm told."

Connally added that Gruenther can expect to be questioned in the committee's closed session about the timing of Eisenhower's possible resignation and on Gruenther's recommendations for filling the post.

Senators have made no secret of the fact that they will look over the 53-year-old, fast-talking four-star general appraisingly as a possible successor to Eisenhower.

Pentagon speculation on an Eisenhower successor has centered mainly on Gen. Matthew Ridgway, now supreme Allied commander in the Far East. Gruenther has been mentioned prominently in military circles too, although one factor that might weigh against him is the fact he never has held a major field command.

Officially, NATO will select its own commander but in actual fact the member nations are likely to give most earnest consideration to a presidential recommendation.

So far as is known publicly, Eisenhower has made no official move to submit his resignation.

Says American Should Always Head NATO

Washington, March 24 (AP) — Sen. Connally (D-Tex.) said today an American should succeed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower when he resigns as Western European defense commander.

Connally heads the Senate Foreign Relations committee, which called Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, Eisenhower's chief deputy, before it today for testimony on the $7,000,000 foreign aid bill.

Although Congress will have no direct hand in the choice of Eisenhower's successor — if the five-star general resigns to become an active candidate for the Republican presidential nomination — the views of the lawmakers might influence President Truman's decision.

Gruenther is believed to be Eisenhower's personal choice for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) command. But Gruenther has been represented as believing that a European should take over.

In this connection, he is said to have suggested to friends the names of Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery of Britain or Gen. Alphonse-Pierre Juin of France.

Connally told reporters he does not believe the United States should relinquish the top command in an enterprise into which it is pouring so much money.

"I don't see why a Briton should be in command — the British aren't even joining in the unified army Eisenhower is trying to assemble," he said.

Connally added that Gruenther can expect to be questioned in the committee's closed session about the timing of Eisenhower's possible resignation and on Gruenther's recommendations for filling the post.

Senators have made no secret of the fact that they will look over the 53-year-old, fast-talking four-star general appraisingly as a possible successor to Eisenhower.

Pentagon speculation on an Eisenhower successor has centered mainly on Gen. Matthew Ridgway, now supreme Allied commander in the Far East. Gruenther has been mentioned prominently in military circles too, although one factor that might weigh against him is the fact he never has held a major field command.

Officially, NATO will select its own commander but in actual fact the member nations are likely to give most earnest consideration to a presidential recommendation.

So far as is known publicly, Eisenhower has made no official move to submit his resignation.

PRESCOTT NEWS

Tuesday, March 25
The Prescott Business and Professional Women's Club will honor their state president, Miss Pauline Gideon of El Dorado at a dinner meeting on Tuesday evening at the Lawson Hotel.

Miss Fannie Harkey of Little Rock, past president, and Miss Gertrude Witt, Little Rock, State Membership Chairman, will also be honor guests.

Wednesday, March 26
Prayer Meeting will be held at the Church of Nazarene Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Mid-week services will begin at the Church of Christ Wednesday evening at 7:15 p.m.

Prayer Meeting and Bible study will be held at the First Christian Church Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. Choir practice will begin at 8.

There will be a prayer meeting at the First Methodist Church on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Thursday, March 27
The Community choir will meet on Thursday evening at 7 for rehearsal at the Methodist Church.

Kiwanians Hear District Lt. Governor Speak
At the Kiwanis meeting Thursday night Mr. Mitchell Sparks of Hope was the principal speaker. Mr. Sparks is the Lieutenant Governor of this district for the Kiwanis. His subject was mostly on the coming election and the importance of all getting out to vote and being able to pick the candidate most suitable for the position desired.

He stressed the importance of selecting as officers those that would conduct the affairs of the government in an honest upright and dignified manner. He states that we at this more than any time before, should be awakened to the fact we are faced daily with reports of corruption in the Government an attempt to select officials that will put state before anything else and use our best judgment in voting.

The Kiwanis club was honored with the presence of four of our band members, Miss Margaret Scott, Rolf Wiley, Lethal Rhodes da El araghy Bey told newsmen no provision had been made yet for the lifting of martial law, which was clamped on Egypt on Jan. 26 after the disastrous fire riots in Cairo.

Propaganda Minister Farid Zaitouk said last night that martial law would be lifted for the election period.

The dissolution came two days after talks began between Hilal and British Ambassador Sir Ralph Stevenson, seeking a settlement of Egypt's demands that British troops quit the Suez canal zone and that Britain surrender the Sudan to Egypt.

A British Embassy spokesman said the elections would not affect the negotiations, which he said were still in the "exploratory state". Another authoritative British source said Britain "certainly hopes that the negotiations will be concluded before election day."

The Wafdists two weeks ago decided to withhold support from Hilal's government, after he suspended parliament for 30 days on March 2 and announced he would wage a vigorous campaign against corruption — allegedly widespread among Wafdist officials — in the government.

The dissolution of parliament had been expected for some time.

Interior Minister Ahmed Mortada El araghy Bey told newsmen no provision had been made yet for the lifting of martial law, which was clamped on Egypt on Jan. 26 after the disastrous fire riots in Cairo.

Propaganda Minister Farid Zaitouk said last night that martial law would be lifted for the election period.

The dissolution came two days after talks began between Hilal and British Ambassador Sir Ralph Stevenson, seeking a settlement of Egypt's demands that British troops quit the Suez canal zone and that Britain surrender the Sudan to Egypt.

A British Embassy spokesman said the elections would not affect the negotiations, which he said were still in the "exploratory state". Another authoritative British source said Britain "certainly hopes that the negotiations will be concluded before election day."

The Wafdists two weeks ago decided to withhold support from Hilal's government, after he suspended parliament for 30 days on March 2 and announced he would wage a vigorous campaign against corruption — allegedly widespread among Wafdist officials — in the government.

The dissolution of parliament had been expected for some time.

Interior Minister Ahmed Mortada El araghy Bey told newsmen no provision had been made yet for the lifting of martial law, which was clamped on Egypt on Jan. 26 after the disastrous fire riots in Cairo.

Propaganda Minister Farid Zaitouk said last night that martial law would be lifted for the election period.

The dissolution came two days after talks began between Hilal and British Ambassador Sir Ralph Stevenson, seeking a settlement of Egypt's demands that British troops quit the Suez canal zone and that Britain surrender the Sudan to Egypt.

A British Embassy spokesman said the elections would not affect the negotiations, which he said were still in the "exploratory state". Another authoritative British source said Britain "certainly hopes that the negotiations will be concluded before election day."

The Wafdists two weeks ago decided to withhold support from Hilal's government, after he suspended parliament for 30 days on March 2 and announced he would wage a vigorous campaign against corruption — allegedly widespread among Wafdist officials — in the government.

The dissolution of parliament had been expected for some time.

Interior Minister Ahmed Mortada El araghy Bey told newsmen no provision had been made yet for the lifting of martial law, which was clamped on Egypt on Jan. 26 after the disastrous fire riots in Cairo.

Ridgway Says World Peace Is at Stake

Tokyo, March 24 (AP) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway says the stakes in the Korean armistice talks are world peace.

The Allied supreme commander said in an interview he prays constantly that Americans will be extremely patient while United Nations Command negotiators withstand Communist deceit and stalling.

Ridgway conceded that the prolonged truce talks — now in their ninth month — tried one's patience, but added:

"Patience is a necessity. The stakes in this case are not only the lives of Allied prisoners in Communist hands, but world peace itself. I think our people realize the situation in which we find ourselves today. A situation so potentially grave calls for the most searching, objective analysis of what you intend to do and what your objectives are."

"Far reaching, almost incalculable consequences could flow from acts which some of our people advocate in the current situation. But such suggestions do not bespeak any sort of objective analysis."

The 57-year-old commander described as "most disturbing" as the charges that the Allies are waging germ warfare in North Korea — charges denied repeatedly by high U. N. officials.

"It is completely in accord with the deliberate and repeated employment of falsehoods of Soviet leaders," Ridgway said. "It is all a part of the big lie. The result is more hatred and more animosity and less chance of getting the world situation straightened out."

He said the Communist charges show "they will stop at nothing to stir up things which could lead to

Pound Foolish

Copyright 1952 by Robert Molloy. Distributed by King Feature Syndicate.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Henri, a young bachelor of Charleston, S. C., and his sister, a young woman of Baltimore, Md., are about to graduate and return home to them and to a more abundant life, perhaps a long delayed family legacy may now be in the year of 1951.

Farouk Kicks Out Lower House

Cairo, March 24 (AP) — King Farouk dissolved parliament's Wafd-dominated lower house today and called a new general election May 18. The action was requested by the cabinet of independent Prime Minister Ahmed Naguib Hilaly Pasha.

Farouk's decree also ordered the new Chamber of Deputies to meet May 31.

The dissolution did not affect the Senate, which is dominated by the Wafd party, but it did suspend parliament for 30 days on March 2 and announced he would wage a vigorous campaign against corruption — allegedly widespread among Wafdist officials — in the government.

The dissolution of parliament had been expected for some time.

Interior Minister Ahmed Mortada El araghy Bey told newsmen no provision had been made yet for the lifting of martial law, which was clamped on Egypt on Jan. 26 after the disastrous fire riots in Cairo.

Propaganda Minister Farid Zaitouk said last night that martial law would be lifted for the election period.

The dissolution came two days after talks began between Hilal and British Ambassador Sir Ralph Stevenson, seeking a settlement of Egypt's demands that British troops quit the Suez canal zone and that Britain surrender the Sudan to Egypt.

A British Embassy spokesman said the elections would not affect the negotiations, which he said were still in the "exploratory state". Another authoritative British source said Britain "certainly hopes that the negotiations will be concluded before election day."

The Wafdists two weeks ago decided to withhold support from Hilal's government, after he suspended parliament for 30 days on March 2 and announced he would wage a vigorous campaign against corruption — allegedly widespread among Wafdist officials — in the government.

The dissolution of parliament had been expected for some time.

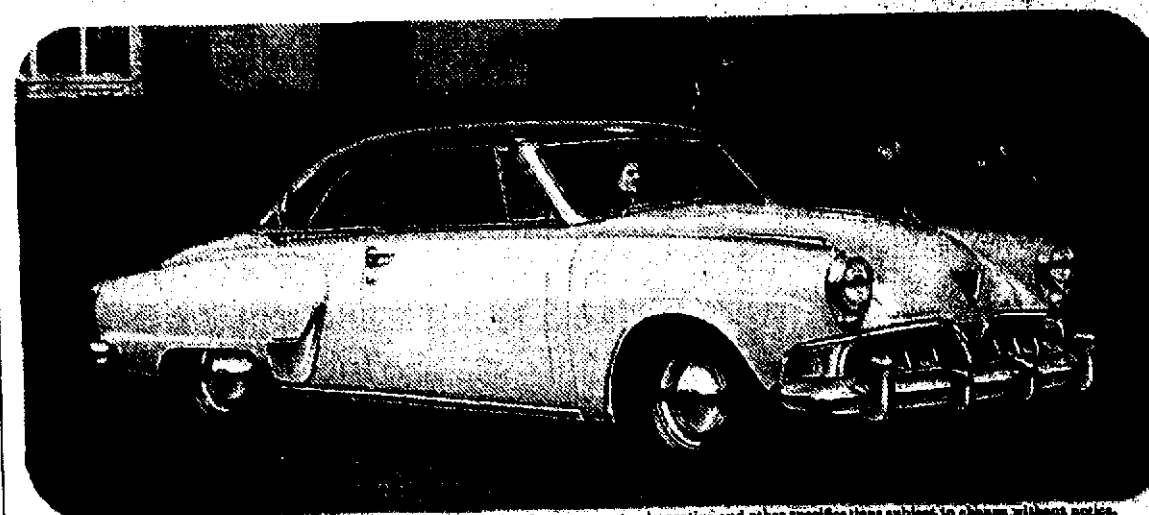

Interior Minister Ahmed Mortada El araghy Bey told newsmen no provision had been made yet for the lifting of martial law, which was clamped on Egypt on Jan. 26 after the disastrous fire riots in Cairo.

Propaganda Minister Farid Zaitouk said last night that martial law would be lifted for the election period.

The dissolution came two days after talks began between Hilal and British Ambassador Sir Ralph Stevenson, seeking a settlement of Egypt's demands that British troops quit the Suez canal zone and that Britain surrender the Sudan to Egypt.

A British Embassy spokesman said the elections would not affect the negotiations, which he said were still in the "exploratory state". Another authoritative British source said Britain "certainly hopes that the negotiations will be concluded before election day."

See and drive the newest of the new!

Illustrated: State Commander V-8. Chrome wheel discs optional at extra cost—decorative and other specifications subject to change without notice.

AMERICA'S SMARTEST "HARD-TOP"

Studebaker Starliner 1952 Commander V-8 or Champion

It's one of eleven far-advanced new Studebaker style stars!

Clean-lined Studebaker design assures you real gas savings!

Order your Starliner right away! Most admired, most desired new Studebaker in years!

ARCHER MOTOR CO.

CANDY SALE
Due to serious illness it may be several months before I can again call on customers to supply your candy. I am offering all my candy which is fresh stock at the following prices:
All 1c candy... 80c box (100 Count)
All 2c candy... 80c box (100 Count)
All 5c candy... 50c box (100 Count)
All 1c candy... 50c box (100 Count)
ALL OR ANY PART OF IT
W. A. JEAN
422 North Elm Street Hope, Ark.

DO YOU KNOW THAT:
There is hardly anything in the world that some man cannot make a little worse and sell a little cheaper, and the people who consider price only are this man's slaves. It is unwise to pay too much, but it's worse to pay too little. When you pay too much, you lose a little money — that's all. When you pay too little, you lose a lot more — because the thing you bought is incapable of doing the thing it was bought for. The common law of business balance prohibits making a little and getting a lot — IT CAN'T BE done. If you deal with the lowest bidder, it is well to pay him a little more because he will not do the job right. And if you do not pay him enough to pay for something, he will not do the job right.

THE INSURANCE MIGHT HAVE PUT IT THIS WAY:
The common law of business balance prohibits making a little and getting a lot — IT CAN'T BE done. If you deal with the lowest bidder, it is well to pay him a little more because he will not do the job right. And if you do not pay him enough to pay for something, he will not do the job right.

ARE YOU PROTECTED?
The common law of business balance prohibits making a little and getting a lot — IT CAN'T BE done. If you deal with the lowest bidder, it is well to pay him a little more because he will not do the job right. And if you do not pay him enough to pay for something, he will not do the job right.

ANDERSON & CO.
INSURANCE